

RICHARDSON®

Customer Service Representative

Richardson has served the team sports market upon a foundation of authenticity, reliability, and an unmatched passion for quality since 1970. Today we are recognized as a leader in the team sports industry, delivering performance-inspired, stock and custom caps to thousands of accounts, and worn by millions of athletes around the world. While team baseball caps are our core business, we also produce headwear for the collegiate licensed and promotional markets, the golf industry, as well as private label businesses.

We understand that caps are for more than just shielding the sun. They're for tossing in the air in celebration, throwing to the ground in disgust, and, sometimes, even for hiding the tears of defeat. It's part of your adventure, because it's the last thing you grab when you're heading out the door, and the first thing you take off when you're done playing. We believe the perfect cap is all about fit and comfort, and most importantly, it's about expression.

Do you love Sports? Enjoy working with a variety of people in a fast-paced office environment? Then we have the right place for you. We are looking for fun, energetic individuals who have strong written and verbal communication skills and who enjoy working with people. We have a broad customer base in the team, corporate promotional and retail / brand markets.
